

1 Yesterday, the 10th of December, marked the anniversary in 1948 of the United Nations adopting the “Universal Declaration of Human Rights”. As we listen to excerpts about some of those rights, we can bear in mind people in different parts of the world who do not share our own experience of human rights being respected.

2 “All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights.” (1)

3 “No-one shall be held in slavery.” (4)

4 “No-one shall be subjected to torture.” (5)

5 “Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.” (6)

6 “Everyone charged with a penal offence has the right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty.” (11)

7 “Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience, and religion.” (18)

8 Let us pray:

Lord, it’s good to be actively concerned about the abuses of human rights in other countries,
but I must not lose sight of the mis-treatment of others closer to me.

Most particularly, Lord, point out to me
my own failings
in lacking respect for those who come into my daily life.

9 I readily condemn slavery, but help me to liberate those I know who are overburdened.

I condemn torture, but lead me to discourage the use of cruel words and actions to those I will meet today.

Remind me that those who degrade others are themselves diminished.

10 Enlighten me
so that I do not jump to conclusions about people, or be judgmental.

Lead me always to respect individuals for who they are,
realising that their experiences may be different from my own, as each follows paths in life that are particular to them.

May I grow in appreciation that those who think differently from me can hold equally valid views.

11 In these and other ways, Lord, may I grow in respect for all people.
This day, may others respect me as much as I respect them.
Amen.
