

- 1 Today is “United Nations Day”, being the day on which the UN was established in 1945, after the world had seen what total war could do.
- 2 At the inaugural session of the United Nations in 1945 at the end of the Second World War, Britain’s Prime Minister - Clement Attlee - stated that

“It is for the peoples of the world to make their choice between life and death.”

- 3 We know that “peace” isn’t simply the “absence of war”, and so the UN seeks to promote good relationships between people and countries. The UN’s choices for “life” include working
  - for refugees,
  - in health care,
  - in the growing of food, and
  - in promoting science and culture.

- 4 A passage in one of the first books of the Bible has God speaking these words about “choosing life”:

“I set before you life or death, blessing or curse. Choose life, then, so that you and your descendants may live in my love.”

(Deut 30<sup>19-20</sup>)

- 5 Let us pray about “choosing life” in our own daily circumstances:

God our Father,
peace in our world
begins with the attitude and actions
of individual people.

We pray
that we may live in such a way
that we are positive in our attitude,
choosing “life”
in the small events of this day

- rather than choosing “death”
that comes from a negative attitude
of criticism and finding fault,
of doing others down
and being miserable.

In choosing “life” rather than “death”,
living positively and cheerfully,
may we bring life to others.
Amen.
